

SEARCH AND FIND BOOKS 查询图书

To check the availability of any item you would like to borrow, please go to <https://opac.xjtlu.edu.cn>. You may log in using your XJTLU account (same login information as your university email account). Simply search the catalogue using key words relevant to your desired item (author, name, subject etc.). Click on any item to see its detailed information such as call number or location in the library. The detailed information will display the floor your item is located on; use the call number to locate the item on the library bookshelves (look for stickers relevant to your call number). If all the copies of the book are on loan and you still wish to borrow it, please refer to the RESERVE BOOKS section.

您如果想查询某本图书是否可借, 可使用图书馆检索系统<https://opac.xjtlu.edu.cn>。您可以通过XJTLU帐号登录系统(登录信息与您学校邮箱账户一致)。通过所需图书的关键词进行搜索(如作者、书名、主题词等), 点击搜索到的条目来查看详细信息, 如索书号、所在位置等, 进而得知该书所在的楼层和书架(可根据书架侧面的标签进行查找)。如果该图书所有复本都已借出, 且您仍需借阅此书, 请参考“预约手续”部分的信息。

douban content: ForStudy Skills or academically-oriented Student Success courses. This proven student success author team has updated its study skills text to extend the depth of core coverage while increasing the relevance and usefulness of the material. In addition to a comprehensive treatment of study skills, Keys to College Studying integrates a definitive theme of active thinking throughout the text and exercises. This theme builds will, skill, and self-management abilities - i.e., students, ability to develop skills, strengthen the will to learn, and monitor and manage their progress. This theme enhances student involvement, understanding, and motivation. End-of-chapter exercises, as well as new in-chapter exercises, link to and reinforce the theme. Students and Faculty alike are encouraged to visit the central website www.carterkeys.com, where you can create a speaking calendar, benefit from current...
